

MONTHLY MEMO FOR COUNSELORS

September 2017

From the Executive Director

Dear Counselors,

In my house, we are officially back to school and back to hustling out the door in the morning and getting to bed earlier in the evenings. I am sure that you are all hustling and probably not getting to bed any earlier! We hope that by offering a webinar for your students and families and sharing answers to frequently asked questions we can help lighten the load.

Webinar for Your Students and their Families

This month, we will host a webinar that is open for everyone who would like to get more information. We would be happy to have you join us or to invite your students, families, teachers, colleagues, or others to learn more about MyCoalition, including the Profile, Locker, Collaboration Space, and Application components. This presentation will offer a live demonstration of key features and an overview of our membership organization. Please spread the news and invite anyone who might benefit from learning more to the webinar on, September 27, 2017 at 6:00 PM ET. All are welcome, invited, and can register through this link.

Expanding Access in Georgia and Beyond

For the first time, in Georgia can use the same application to apply to the University of Georgia alongside Emory, Georgia Tech, and over 100 smart college choices throughout the country. This has caused a bit of a buzz. Similar opportunities, where students can use a single application for in-state institutions alongside nationally distinguished peers, are available for students in Arizona, Florida, Illinois, Maryland, Michigan, New Jersey, New Mexico, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, Virginia, and Washington.

Coalition on the Road!

This month, the Coalition team traveled to St. George, Utah to present at the Association of Small and Rural Libraries Conference, hosted a breakfast for community based organization leaders at the National College Access Network Conference in San Diego, CA, and is visiting Boston for the NACAC Annual Conference. If you are in Boston, please consider learning about supporting your students with MyCoalition on Saturday, September 17 at 11:45 AM.

We hope that you continue to encourage your colleagues to request additional information on our webpage here to join the mailing list for this newsletter. I am eager to support your work; please let me know if there is anything you need.

Most sincerely,

Annie Reznik
