

Hello Tiffany,

Earlier this month, Team Coalition snapped this photo as we spent some time reflecting on the past year and planning for 2019. Fortunately, no one fell off the narrow dock we teetered on for this selfie! We hope for even greater fortunes in 2019. And, as 2018 comes to a close, please read some recent news below. We wish you all some time to rest and reflect this holiday season!

Most sincerely,

Annie Reznik
Executive Director, Coalition for College

Coalition connects with Dallas students during Morning of Service

On Oct. 21, 2018, nearly two dozen representatives from the Coalition for College participated in a Morning of Service at three Texas high schools. At this inaugural event, approximately 150 students were introduced to the Coalition and its MyCoalition resources. Read more >>>

Coalition Day celebrated in Bryan, Texas

On Nov. 16, 2018, representatives from seven Coalition schools celebrated Coalition Day at Bryan High School in Bryan, Texas. Sponsored by Altice USA, the event introduced more than 100 students to the college-planning tools and resources available through MyCoalition. Read more >>>

The Coalition contributes to national discussion on supporting veterans

In November, the Coalition and many of its member schools participated in a national conference regarding college opportunities for veterans. The Coalition's many initiatives to support veterans were highlighted during a panel discussion, New Commitments to Students Veterans. Read more >>>

The Coalition partners with IDEA Public Schools

The Coalition has partnered with IDEA Public Schools — a network of 79 tuition-free, Pre-K-12 charter schools — to launch a pilot project for ninth-12th graders in seven IDEA high schools in Texas. Through this program, MyCoalition tools will be integrated into IDEA's College Success curriculum to promote college access. Read more >>>

SENT ON BEHALF OF THE PROUD MEMBERS OF THE COALITION

View Coalition Members »

Follow Us:

